

Water Fountains in Salzburg State, Austria

Being a tourism hotspot with loads of foreigners calling the beautiful historical cities home every holiday, it would be interesting to see the spread of water fountains across the state especially as Salzburg accounts for the second highest number of tourists (by overnight stay) in Austria (as of November 2023).

This map shows the spread of water fountains as an overlay of a choropleth map depicting water points across the state of Salzburg.

